WHAT IS FRANCHISING?

A form of business organization in which a very successful establishment that is the Franchisor, provides a licensed privilege to the Franchisee to operate under the Franchisor's trade mark and images, with assistance in organizing, training, merchandising, marketing and managing in return for a monetary consideration.

IS IT COMPATIBLE WITH ISLAMIC VALUES?

This form and style of business reliant on explicit disclosures, mutual agreements and co-operative management is a hallmark of Islam and not in conflict with the Shariah (Islamic law). Islam has accorded a very high status to the merchant because of the leadership role he plays in society in service delivery, wealth, job creation and empowerment.

HALAAL CERTIFICATION IN FRANCHISING

HD has over the years collaborated with many global and Franchise brands. It has gained invaluable experience in the Certification process of this sector which is accepted in many parts of the world. The certification of the fast food and restaurant industry is based on a stringent monitoring and auditing system of every link in the chain, beginning with the Franchisor who controls and dictates every aspect of the process to the Franchisee at the end of the chain. The Franchise company is required to make full disclosures and enter into an agreement with HD.

HADITH ON MERCY UPON SLAUGHTERING

On the authority of Adam Ya'la shaddaad ibn Anas, The Messenger of Allah said "Verily Allah has prescribed proficiency in all things. Thus if you kill, kill well and if you slaughter, slaughter well. Let each one of you sharpen his blade and let him spare suffering to the animal he slaughters" (Muslim).

ADHERENCE TO HALAAL

When one compares communities that adhere strictly to the codex of Halaal and Haraam with those that don't, one finds a huge difference in the standards of Imaan and values of ethics and morality between those who take a stern attitude and those who take a lenient attitude towards Halaal and Haraam. Leniency in Halaal standards and compromised interpretation have led people into ruins of their Imaan (Faith), delinquency, and dullness of their youth, and disunity of the Ummah. Many illnesses of the Ummah can be traced back to the lack of stringent Halaal standards. It is with this regard that a person must take a no-compromise stance when it comes to Halaal standards knowing that Halaal foods impact directly to persons Imaan.

ICE CREAM - LICENSE TO CHILL

Ice Cream is the world's favourite "comfort food indulgence". Never-ending summers and delicious desserts, is the feel-good an ideal happiness in a scoop. The manufacturing process of Ice Cream seems straight forward with blending, pasteurizing, homogenizing, ageing and freezing of a composition of ingredients, usually milk solids, sweeteners, stabilizers and flavourings.

However, there are many complications that infringe religious dietary laws. The use of an animal by-product, known as gelatin, which is commonly derived from pig skin, cattle hides, bones, tendons, ligaments and hooves and less frequently from poultry and fish can be problematic. This is the "magic binder" to give smoothness and sheen. Although there are some Halaal certifying organizations that accept gelatin from non-Halaal slaughtered animals, HD strictly abides by the World Halaal Council's ruling that only gelatin from Halaal slaughtered animals may be used. HD has over the years uncovered many instances of Haraam in Ice Cream such as use of alcohol, pig gelatin and red colouring known as Cochineal or Carmine which is made from the dried and crushed bodies of female cochineal insects.

Muslim consumers; Be warned on the dangers of Ice Creams' ingredients, some Ice Creams are not Halaal. Do not be complacent.

HALAAL AND SOCIETY

Globally some winds of change in the world surrounding our advancement in technology and culture have transformed the way we experienced in food industry. The advancement of technologies and culture in all types of ages, races, religions, and sizes have also transformed into one another. Today people have all access to know more things like food, beverages, and pharmaceutical products through modern technologies.

In Malawi, Halaal Department reaches everyone at every corner of the country through Radio program called Chakudya ndi Moyo on Radio Islam aired every Sunday from 06:30 am to 07: 00 am, and on TV Islam Mondays and Sundays at 08:30am, and 4:30pm respectively. HD centralized Helpline number has been established to fill a vital role in keeping the public informed on Halaal/ Haraam issues with the interactive service used by all kind of people. The number handles daily queries of products status. The information can be accessed through WhatsApp on +265 881 055 711. Email: info@halaalmalawi.org; Responding to your e-mail queries. Website www.halaalmalawi.org; A gateway to the world of Halaal. Twitter@halaal_malawi: Follow us to receive announcements, products Halaal status and many more. Gone are days when Muslims in the society used to eat food that comes with the pretext of being from abroad, you have technologies everywhere you go, and let us make use of these technologies to consume Halaal. Halaal, begins with you.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS SEGMENT

Question: Why are there so many Halaal Certifying bodies in the world?

Answer: With the recent boom of the Halaal market across the world, Halaal products have become increasingly in demand. The rising demand of Muslim consumers for these products has been met with businesses producing a variety of options and innovations. Along with this increase in product production, there is also a growing demand for Halaal certifying services to provide their stamp of approval on Halaal products. However, there are numerous Islamic cultures, traditions, and schools of thought to which people adhere to. Thus, when it comes to establishing any type of regulatory body for the purposes of Halaal certification, the problem of such variation arises, and hence there is a lack of an international unified committee or organization that has established official parameters and requirements for Halaal Certification.

Question: Why was Halaal Department formed?

Answer: HD was formed to provide undisputable guidance and regulation on what is pure for human consumption in accordance with the Shariah through certification, advice and sensitization to mainstream products and services there by ensuring that everyone is following Allah's injunctions and the Prophet's ﷺ guidance.

Question: What will happen to a Muslim who consumes Haraam?

Answer: Consuming Halaal is an order from Allah and an essential part of the Islamic faith. By being careless about the dietary laws of Islam a believer puts himself in harm's way both in this world and the world hereafter. Consumption of such product, one deprives himself from having any of his good deeds accepted by his Creator. In the hereafter he will suffer the greatest loss ever imaginable i.e. refusal from being admitted to Paradise. All this is confirmed in many traditions one of them is the below:

Abu Hurairah RA related, "Allah's Messenger ﷺ said: Verily Allah is pure and He accepts only what is pure and indeed Allah has given those orders to the believers, which he has given to the Messengers. He has said, "O Messenger, eat from the pure foods and work righteous". He also has said: "O you who have believed, eat from the pure things which we have provided you." Then the Prophet ﷺ made mention of a man who undergoes a lengthy journey in a state that he is disheveled and dusty. He spreads his hands towards the sky (calling), "O My Lord, O My Lord", however his food is Haraam, his drink is Haraam, his clothes are Haraam and he has been nourished with Haraam! So how will his call be answered?" (Muslim)

Question: Are Endearments sweets Halaal?

Answer: Endearments Sweets are not approved Halaal by HD as they contain bovine gelatin derived from unverified sources.

Question: Is Doritos Halaal?

Answer: Doritos made in South Africa are Halaal recognized by HD. Those made from other countries are required to be verified of their Halaal status by the HD.

Question: Is M&M's Halaal?

Answer: M&M's made in Malaysia and Poland are Halaal recognized by HD. Please take note that certain countries including France produce M&M's that contain carmine /E120 (insect derived dye) which is not Halaal.

Question: Can I buy Halaal certified dressed chickens with HD logo on them from non Halaal certified supermarkets like Shoprite, Chipiku and Spar etc.?

Answer: Meat and meat products should not be purchased from non-Halaal Certified facilities. Shoprite, Chipiku, Spar etc as these products are supplied from various sources not recognized as Halaal by HD. Therefore, there is high possibility of contamination taking place during storage. Therefore, people should only purchase dressed chickens, meat and meat products from such stores which are Halaal certified by HD.

Question: Is Colgate Toothpaste Halaal to use?

Answer: Colgate Toothpaste products manufactured in Poland are Halaal to use. Currently, HD is querying toothpaste products from India, Thailand and China. HD will only be able to advise once the query is addressed.

Question: Does Central Poultry stun chickens before slaughtering and if so what is the ruling in the Shariah for stunning before slaughter?

Answer: Although HD encourages stun free slaughtering, it also accepts stunning animals before slaughter on the ground that a stunned animal which is not slaughtered recovers to lead a full normal life, therefore, stunning does not cause damage to the life-force of animal and is Halaal (acceptable) the same applies to poultry. In other words, stunning is acceptable. HD monitors the whole process from pre-stunning to stunning and makes sure animal/ poultry is alive at time of slaughter.

Question: Many Chocolates contain Liquor, is this Halaal?

Answer: The Chocolate liquor' ingredient used to make chocolate is not a reference to alcohol, it is simply pure cocoa and it is Halaal. It is called Liquor because it is liquid cocoa beans. It is also called cocoa mass, cocoa paste or unsweetened Chocolate. On the other hand, Liqueur Chocolates which contain alcohol are not Halaal irrespective of the source of the alcohol, Likewise the chocolate liqueur alcohol drink is not Halaal.
